San Francisco de Asís
Catholic Church and School

We, the Roman Catholic community of Flagstaff proclaim God's love. Inspired by the life of St. Francis, we witness the grace and love of Jesus Christ through Evangelization, Religious Education, Celebration of the Sacraments, and Service to Others.

Jesus asked them,
"BUT WHO DO YOU SAY THAT I AM?"
Peter said to him in reply,
"YOU ARE THE CHRIST."

SUFFERING, HOPE, AND LOVE

Our readings from Isaiah and from the Gospel of Mark confront us with the fact that the invitation to faith leads us into suffering. In Isaiah, the prophet accepts pain and shaming from others, as he trusts in God. In Mark, Jesus is blunt about this: "Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me." When we embrace faith, we are confronted with our own fears about suffering and about losing comfort, status, and control over our lives. Life has plenty of suffering already, so why choose to add to it? Jesus points to a response: avoiding our fears and clinging to illusion and superficial comforts will not give us what we really want from life. Jesus offers a better, deeper life, a life grounded in God's love. It is lived in hope of resurrection and the final triumph of this love.

A DIFFERENT LIFE

The Gospel of Mark reaches a turning point in today's passage. About halfway through Mark, Jesus' disciples begin to understand Jesus as the Messiah (or Christ). And Jesus begins to spell out just what is expected of those who follow him. The story then shifts to learning just what being Christ, and following Christ, actually means. Jesus shatters the expectation of a political or military power defeating Israel's oppressors, and reveals a different kind of Messiah. The disciples later come to see that this different Messiah offers a different understanding of power, and of life itself.

We inhabit a world that honors power over others, through wealth or achievement or violence. Jesus invites us into a community and a way of life that honors the power of love and service to others. Lived fully, it is truly a different way of life. It is marked by great suffering and great joy, because it embraces the fundamental pattern of the death and resurrection of Jesus.

A "LARGE" FAITH

The letter of James is designed to enlarge your faith. James knew that his community faced trials that could lead them to abandon the faith, or perhaps to reduce faith to a comfortable, manageable size. In today's passage, James calls the reader to resist reducing faith to safe, intellectual assent to teachings, and instead to expand one's faith to actively engage in good works, especially in service to the poor.

To have a "large" faith is to move from apathy toward others' sufferings to empathy and to action. A large faith leads to a large heart, where we can take in the enormity of suffering in the world around us, not become overwhelmed by it, and do what we can to relieve it. With a large heart, we can even squarely face our own sufferings, accepting our own tragedies with forgiveness and hope, and walking in empathy with all who share in suffering.

Importance of Catholic schools today-by Michael Lancaster

Why do Catholic schools exist? When you look at this from a student's view, there are two clear goals: 1) College and 2) Heaven. While we hope that students realize these goals in this order, Heaven is clearly the more important of the two.

Impact on Church: Studies show that among millennial's, those who attended Catholic School are three times more likely to consider a vocation in the church. They are also likely to attend Mass weekly, participate in their parish, volunteer and tithe.

Academic excellence: Academically, Catholic schools hold high expectations for students, instilling solid study skills and work ethic. Studies show that students consistently score higher in reading and math. Catholic schools focus on faith, working to form the whole child academically, physically, intellectually, spiritually, emotionally, and socially.

How can you help: The most direct ways you can help are by contributing time, talent, treasure, and prayer.

St Paul Street Evangelization

"Evangelization is simply one beggar telling another beggar where to find bread."

If you have ever considered evangelizing but don't feel adequate to the task, consider Fr Ian's words from this weekend's homily: "It's not about success or failure or how much you know. It is about relying on God."

If you have felt called to evangelize, don't let worries of inadequacy stop you. Place your trust and reliance in the Lord.
