PANCAKES ANYONE?

The Knights will be serving their delicious pancake breakfast next Sunday, October 13, after the 8 and 10 am Masses. The price is $6 per person ($3 for Children 10 and under) or $20 maximum per family. They will also be selling their great BURRITOS for $3 each. All Net Proceeds will go for People With Intellectual Disabilities.

Their 2nd of 9 KC 1000 RAFFLE drawings will also take place after the 8 am Mass during their Pancake Breakfast.

Happy Sunday!

This week I leave for my vacation and the parish pilgrimage. While I am looking forward to the Holy sites we will visit, I'm sad to miss such a great part of the autumn. Everyone will be in my prayers in a special way along the pilgrimage and especially in Assisi, the home of our patron, St. Francis. I am looking forward to returning to these holy places and offering Mass at a few of them.

We are quickly approaching our next presidential election here in the United States. At a time when people feel a lot of tension and high emotion, I want to redirect our attention to the Catechism of the Catholic Church. In paragraph 2239 it states, "It is the duty of citizens to contribute along with the civil authorities to the good of society in a spirit of truth, justice, solidarity, and freedom. The love and service of one's country follow from the duty of gratitude and belong to the order of charity. Submission to legitimate authorities and service of the common good require citizens to fulfill their roles in the life of the political community."

In paragraph 2211 the Catechism reminds us of the following:

The political community has a duty to honor the family, to assist it, and to ensure especially:

- the freedom to establish a family, have children, and bring them up in keeping with the family's own moral and religious convictions; the protection of the stability of the marriage bond and the institution of the family;
- the freedom to profess one's faith, to hand it on, and raise one's children in it, with the necessary means and institutions;
- the right to private property, to free enterprise, to obtain work and housing, and the right to emigrate;
- in keeping with the country's institutions, the right to medical care, assistance for the aged, and family benefits;
- the protection of security and health, especially with respect to dangers like drugs, pornography, alcoholism, etc.;

We also want to support the right to life. This includes defending the unborn against abortion, defending the weak and vulnerable against euthanasia, and respecting the dignity of the human person in scientific research (that is, against using the human person for scientific purposes rather than regarding them as created in God's image and likeness). There are many more causes but these deserve special attention as we approach the coming election. More than anything, our hope is in Jesus Christ and His church, not in the current political situation. Jesus is the one who gives us salvation and invites us to eternal life with Him.

Know of my prayers for each of you and have a great week!

In Christ,
Fr. Connealy

¡Feliz domingo!

Esta semana saldré de vacaciones y de peregrinación parroquial. Aunque espero con ilusión los lugares sagrados que visitaremos, me entristece perderme una parte tan importante del otoño. Todos estarán en mis oraciones de manera especial durante la peregrinación y especialmente en Asís, la casa de nuestro patrón, San Francisco. Espero volver a estos lugares santos y celebrar la Misa en algunos de ellos.

Nos acercamos rápidamente a nuestra próxima elección presidencial aquí en los Estados Unidos. En un momento en el que la gente siente mucha tensión y fuertes emociones, quiero redirigir nuestra atención al Catecismo de la Iglesia Católica. En el párrafo 2239 se afirma: "Es deber de los ciudadanos contribuir junto con las autoridades civiles al bien de la sociedad en un espíritu de verdad, justicia, solidaridad y libertad. El amor y el servicio a la patria se derivan del deber de gratitud y pertenecen al orden de la caridad. La sumisión a las autoridades legítimas y el servicio al bien común exigen que los ciudadanos cumplan su papel en la vida de la comunidad política". En el número 2211 el Catecismo nos recuerda lo siguiente:

La comunidad política tiene el deber de honrar a la familia, asistir y asegurar especialmente:

- la libertad de fundar una familia, tener hijos y educarlos según las convicciones morales y religiosas propias de la familia;
- la protección de la estabilidad del vínculo matrimonial y de la institución familiar;
- la libertad de profesar la propia fe, transmitirla y educar en ella a los hijos, con los medios y las instituciones necesarias;
- el derecho a la propiedad privada, a la libre iniciativa, a obtener trabajo y vivienda, y el derecho a emigrar;
- según las instituciones del país, el derecho a la asistencia médica, a la asistencia a los ancianos y a las prestaciones familiares;
- la protección de la seguridad y de la salud, especialmente frente a peligros como la droga, la pornografía, el alcoholismo, etc.;

Queremos también apoyar el derecho a la vida. Esto incluye la defensa de los no nacidos contra el aborto, la defensa de los débiles y vulnerables contra la eutanasia y el respeto a la dignidad de la persona humana en la investigación científica (es decir, contra el uso de la persona humana con fines científicos en lugar de considerarla creada a imagen y semejanza de Dios). Hay muchas más causas, pero éstas merecen una atención especial a medida que nos acercamos a las próximas elecciones. Más que nada, nuestra esperanza está en Jesucristo y su Iglesia, no en la situación política actual. Jesús es quien nos da la salvación y nos invita a la vida eterna con Él.

Sean que cada uno de ustedes está en mis oraciones y ¡que tengan una gran semana!

En Cristo,
Padre Connealy

SECLAR FRANCISCAN ORDER

"For many, Francis's actions seemed irrational, but he was not the first or last war veteran to experience a change after confronting the demons of the battlefield or prison. The early accounts of Francis's life don't provide enough detail to judge whether he would today meet the diagnostic criteria for PTSD, but it is clear, however, that he was psychologically changed."
