PARISH ON-LINE GIVING

Happy Palm Sunday!

I can't believe we are already here. Lent has flown by and now we are beginning the final stretch of Holy Week to the Easter Festivities. We will add confession times on Tuesday evening at 5pm along with our regularly scheduled Wednesday evening confessions. The Triduum liturgies begin on Holy Thursday with the Mass of the Lord's Supper at 6pm. As the Mass ends we'll process to the Bosco room for the altar of repose. We will then have confessions near the Bosco room (staff and volunteers will help direct you) until 10pm. Like last year, we will also have altars of repose set up at Guadalupe and Nativity. These altars will be open immediately after the Mass of the Lord's Supper until 10pm and there will be confessions at each as well. We invite you to take time on Thursday night to make a little pilgrimage to each of the altars. The Newman Center will also be open to visit the Blessed Sacrament at their altar of repose and they will have confessions as well.

On Good Friday we will have morning confessions from 9-11am, outdoor stations of the cross (weather permitting) led by the youth group, and then The Passion of the Lord at 3pm in the Church. Afterwards, there will be the possibility to go to confession in the main church. On Saturday morning there will be NO CONFESSIONS as we prepare for the Easter Vigil which begins at 8pm. Finally, on Easter Sunday we will have our regular 8am, 10am, and 12:15pm Masses. We look forward to sharing this week with you! Know of my prayers!

In Christ,
Fr. Connealy

¡Feliz Domingo de Ramos!

No puedo creer que ya estemos aquí. La Cuaresma se ha pasado volando y ahora estamos entrando en la recta final de la Semana Santa hacia las festividades de Pascua. Añadiremos confesiones el martes por la tarde a las 5 p. m., además de las confesiones regulares de los miércoles por la tarde. Las liturgias del Triduo comienzan el Jueves Santo con la Misa de la Cena del Señor a las 6 pm. Al terminar la misa, nos dirigiremos al Salón Bosco para el altar de reposo. Luego tendremos confesiones cerca del Salón Bosco (el personal y los voluntarios les ayudarán a guiarlos) hasta las 10 pm. Al igual que el año pasado, también tendremos altares de reposo en Guadalupe y la Natividad. Estos altares estarán abiertos inmediatamente después de la Misa de la Cena del Señor hasta las 10 pm. y también habrá confesiones en cada uno. Los invitamos a tomarse un tiempo el jueves por la noche para hacer una pequeña peregrinación a cada uno de los altares. El Centro Newman también estará abierto para visitar al Santísimo Sacramento en su altar de reposo y también habrá confesiones.

El Viernes Santo tendremos confesiones por la mañana de 9 a 11 am., vía crucis al aire libre (si el clima lo permite) dirigida por el grupo de jóvenes, y luego La Pasión del Señor a las 3 pm. en la Iglesia. Después, podrán confesarse en la iglesia principal. El sábado por la mañana NO habrá CONFESSIONES mientras nos preparamos para la Vigilia Pascual que comienza a las 8 pm. Finalmente, el Domingo de Pascua tendremos misas regulares a las 8 am, 10 am y 12:15 pm. ¡Esperamos compartir esta semana con ustedes! ¡Sepan que estoy orando por ustedes!

En Cristo,
P. Connealy

The Paschal Mystery: Jesus' Passion, Death, Resurrection, and Ascension

A simple consideration of the linguistic background for the terms paschal and mystery reveals many things about this doctrine. Paschal is the English adjectival form of the Greek word pascha, which is derived from the Hebrew word pesah (or pesach), which means "passover." The Pesach or Passover is the Jewish Feast celebrating the Israelites' deliverance from slavery in Egypt (see Exodus, chapter 12), focusing on the Tenth Plague and its results. In the Tenth Plague, the angel of death struck down the firstborn males of the Egyptians (humans and animals) but "passed over" the homes of the Israelites, sparing their firstborn. This led to the Israelites' release from their Egyptian captivity, beginning a major new chapter in the story of salvation history. The angel of death recognized the homes of the Israelites because they were marked by the blood of a sacrificial lamb (also called the paschal lamb).

The Passover is an important foreshadowing in God's plan of salvation. There are many parallels between the Passover and Christ's saving work. In both cases the people are under foreign domination: Egyptian and Roman. In both cases God raises up a savior to lead them to freedom: Moses and Jesus Christ. In both cases the people are given a new code of life: the Ten Commandments and the Beatitudes. In both cases they are saved by the shedding of innocent blood: the Paschal Lamb's and Christ's. In both cases the savior leads the people from one state to another: from being slaves in Egypt to being free in the Promised Land and from being slaves to sin to being free from sin.

There is one important difference between the Passover and the Paschal Mystery: In the Passover salvation is incomplete and limited to the Israelites, but in the Passion, death, Resurrection, and Ascension of Christ, salvation is fully accomplished and universal, for all people and all time. By calling Christ's saving work the Paschal Mystery, we are reminded that God's plan of salvation has long been at work, and though hidden and incomplete in the events of the Old Testament, it has been fully revealed and accomplished through Jesus Christ.
